We are delighted to announce that in partnership with MU Foundation, the Growth Company will be offering all current year 11 students with an exciting paid summer development programme, focusing on arts/ crafts, outdoor activities and construction. The programme is free to attend and students will earn £10 per day of attendance. Sites available are Tameside and Longsight.

During form time this coming Friday, your child will receive an information session by a member of MU Foundation staff.

Following this should they wish to sign up please use the link or QR code provided.
